STARTED AT TEN. NEVER STOPPED.

Born and raised in Brooklyn, Drew was spinning block parties and private events alongside his father by age ten. That early start grew into ticket sales and party promotion across the Tri-State area.

He sharpened his craft with the renowned Dream Hospitality Group, learning under some of nightlife's biggest names. Fourteen-plus years later, his precisely curated open-format sets and command of the mic make him one of New York's most trusted DJs and emcees.
